

Illinois State University
University Curriculum Committee
Office of the Provost

TO: Provost, Deans, Department Chairs, School Directors, College Curriculum Committee Chairs, Academic Affairs Committee, Program Directors, Graduate Curriculum Committee, University Registrar, and University Curriculum Committee
FROM: Elizabeth Chapman, Executive Secretary, University Curriculum Committee
RE: Curricular Proposals for February
DATE: February 24, 2004

The following proposals are available in Moulton 109. Written comments regarding undergraduate courses should be directed to the University Curriculum Committee Secretary, 109 Moulton Hall, Campus Box 2202; Fax 438-8652; E-mail: jdrybur@ilstu.edu. Any written comments should be received by March 9, 2004. Any undergraduate proposal receiving objection(s) will follow the procedure outlined in the 2003-2004 University Curriculum Committee Course Proposal Preparation Package that can be found on the University Curriculum Committee Web site at: <http://www.ilstu.edu/depts/ucc/>. Temporary courses (89), Workshops (93), and Seminars (397) will be approved following circulation if no objections are received.

Proposed for 2005-2006 Undergraduate Catalog:

NEW COURSES

BSC

325 ECOLOGICAL PHYSIOLOGY OF ANIMALS 3 F
BSC 201 and 203 req.

Exploration of the physiological adaptations animals have evolved in response to habitat variation.

375 STREAM ECOLOGY LECTURE 3 F
BSC 196, 197, 201 or cons inst and CHE 110 or equiv req.

Introduction to the structure and function of stream ecosystems examining hydrology, geomorphology, chemistry, and ecology of stream ecosystems.

376 STREAM ECOLOGY LABORATORY 1 F
BSC 196, 197, 201 or cons inst and CHE 110 or equiv req; BSC 375 or conc req req.

The integration of the geology, chemistry, zoology, and ecology of flowing waters and their conservation and restorations.

SOC

109 INTRODUCTION TO U.S. LATINO/A STUDIES MC-UST 3
IDS 100; ENG 101 and COM 110 req, or ENG 101 and conc req req in COM 110, or COM 110 and conc req req in ENG 101. May not be taken under the CT/NC option. Not for cr if had 189.15.

An interdisciplinary introduction to the migration, work, and community experiences of U.S. Latino/Latina immigrants and their descendants.

---

Respectfully Submitted by:
Jeri Ryburn, Undergraduate Catalog Editorial Assistant and
University Curriculum Committee Secretary